

New Economy Loan Fund

The New Economy Loan Fund LLC invests in community-led initiatives that create and sustain living-wage jobs, mutual and non-speculative housing, green and cultural spaces, and access to healthy food. Operated by New Economy Project, the Loan Fund supports enterprises that engage community members in democratic decision-making and expand economic opportunity. Through the Fund, we seek to promote economic and racial justice, and demonstrate that a transformative vision of our economy is possible.

LOAN FUND CRITERIA

The Loan Fund provides flexible, low-interest loans and makes long-term investments that strengthen low-income and immigrant neighborhoods and communities of color in NYC. The Loan Fund supports community-led initiatives, such as:

- worker cooperatives
- community gardens and farms
- community-based financing initiatives
- consumer and purchasing cooperatives
- community land trusts
- other efforts that align with the Fund's mission
