In Rochester, residents of majority-white census tracts received more than twice as many conventional mortgage loans as residents of majority-non-white tracts, controlling for the number of owner-occupied housing units.

Non-white population: total population excluding non-Hispanic whites.
Loans mapped include first-lien, conventional home purchase and refinance loans on owner-occupied, 1-4 family properties.
Sources: Home Mortgage Disclosure Act (2017); American Community Survey (2017)

© 2019 www.neweconomynyc.org